

Good Evening Sunday Night Bible Study,

I'd like to start by thanking you all for your love, support, and prayers over the last six plus months. Certainly without these things, the accident and passing of my Dear Mumsey would have been unbearable for me. The outpouring of support and encouragement has been just wonderful. I praise God every single day for the uplifting and selfless people you have been through this tragedy. I feel as though I have been surrounded by Angels here on Earth!

It is important to me that you all know how very much my Mother enjoyed and loved each one of you. She saw this group of people as part of her family. She talked so highly of you, and thanked God for the long-standing relationships and teaching she was blessed with for so many years. I too, praise God! Because the tools, knowledge and friendship she received in your environment, she shared with me. She often selflessly and lovingly shared your stories with me, so that I would have knowledge and peace once she went home to be with the Lord.

How do I thank you for that? Saying “Thank You” just simply isn’t enough. After praying and asking God for an opportunity to serve you the way you served her, He has made a way.

You see, my husband Artem and I are building a business that we believe in whole heartedly. When I married Artem, he had already been working with a few successful local business owners to build his own stream of income, by simply serving other people and offering a core line of the best products on the market. By changing our shopping habits, as well as the products we use in our home, we are getting paid by big companies to do so. We partner with companies like Apple, Kohl’s, Target, Nike, and MANY more to use and advertise their products, so that they don’t have to advertise themselves. The best part about it is that we only buy what we would be buying anyway.

Because of this business, with dedication and hard work, we will have a way for me to stay home with my girls when my Maternity Leave runs out next month. It is also because of this business, and the way God has provided for us that we were able to buy Mumsey’s house. To God all praise and glory!

Now, my Heart:

When I joined Artem in his business about a year ago, to no surprise, my Mumsey became our biggest cheerleader in no time at all. As you know, she would do anything to help others, and she helped us in so many ways.

Before her accident on January 1st, she and I planned to do an Open House for my business at her new home. She wanted to help my husband and I grow our business and support our products. I was so excited to do this with and for her. Unfortunately, we were never able to bring this to be. So, after much prayer and consideration, I have decided to continue on without her, in her memory. Now that we have moved into her house (and are somewhat settled), I'd like to host an Open House for the people she was most excited to invite: her Sunday Night Bible Study.

To be honest, this Open House has become less about our business, and more about connecting with the people Mom did life with for SO many years. She cherished these people all along. To have the opportunity to thank you each in person and remember my Mom together would mean the world to me. At the same time, to introduce you to a few of our business partners/mentors who have come up along side of us and supported us through the most difficult circumstances would be a pleasure.

I would like to invite you to Mumsey's Earthly Home (now our home) for an Open House on Sunday, July 29, 2018, beginning at 2:00. We will have products set up for you to get aquatinted with, but we will not be pressuring or even asking you to buy. We just want to welcome you into our home. The Open House will begin at 2:00 and end at 6:00. You are welcome to come and go as it works for you.

If you'd like, please bring a friend or spread the word to anyone who knew/loved Becky Proteaux.

I am asking for R.S.V.P.s simply to get an idea of how full our home will be. (And I hope it will be FULL!)
