Revelation 1:19

Write therefore the things that you have seen, those that are and those that are to take place after this.

Purpose of the Book

To give believers, in advance, a view of how Jesus Christ judges the church, how He will judge the world, and how He becomes King, resulting in believers being called to holiness, godliness, and faithfulness.

2 Peter 3:10-11

10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, in which the heavens will pass away with a roar and the elements will be destroyed with intense heat, and the earth and its works will be burned up.

11 Since all these things are to be destroyed in this way, what sort of people ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness,

1 John 3:2-3

2 Beloved, now we are children of God, and it has not appeared as yet what we will be. We know that when He appears, we will be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is.

Prophecy can be either:
IGNORED

Why is the book of revelation ignored?

1. Because it is too difficult to understand.
2. Because it is not taken literally.
3. Because pastors come from seminaries where they are taught to ignore it.
4. Because it takes time, study and hard work.
5. Because of sign-chasers and date setters/teasers.

ABUSED

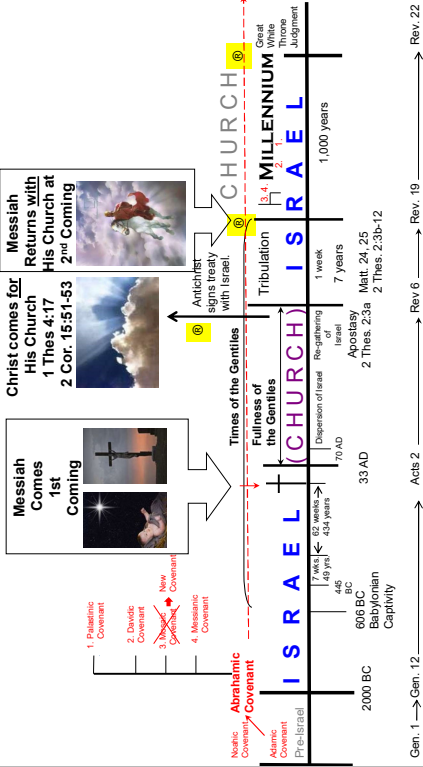

1. Prophecy has been used to sell books, tapes, CDs, DVDs, magazines, movies, conferences, etc.
2. Making it sensational – have people hanging on the latest sign or newspaper headline.
3. Set dates that prove false and do damage to the truth of God’s Word.

Why are there so many interpretations and why so much confusion about the Book of Revelation and prophecy in general?

5 reasons:

1. Lack of Biblical understanding .

Dr. Thomas Ice

First of all, I believe that the Book of Revelation is a "Grand Central Station" into which all future Bible prophecy flows.

If you are consistent and faithful in literally interpreting the Bible, then you will get Israel's covenants and promises right . . .

If you get Israel's covenants and promises right, you get Israel right . . .

If you get Israel right, then you get the Church right . . .

If you get the Church and Israel right, then you get prophecy right.

Why are there so many interpretations and why so much confusion about the Book of Revelation and prophecy in general?

5 reasons:

1. Lack of Biblical understanding .
2. Lack of consistent literal interpretation.
3. Indifference.
4. Laziness.
5. Low view of the inspiration of the Bible.

Hyper • Extreme • Orthodox • Consistent

- The second coming has already happened.
- The resurrection of dead believers has already taken place.
- We're currently living in the New Heaven and New Earth.
- If there is an end to history, it isn't revealed in the Bible.

Partial Preterism

The tribulation period and the majority of Biblical prophecies were fulfilled in the events surrounding 70 A.D.

The Historicist View

The events of Revelation are being fulfilled in the present and are a panorama of church history from the time of the apostles to the second coming of Jesus.

The Idealist View

The book of Revelation is timeless. Idealists believe that Revelation depicts a battle between the church and the world at all times in church history.

The Futurist View

Revelation 4-22 describes real people and events who are yet to appear on the world scene at the end of history.

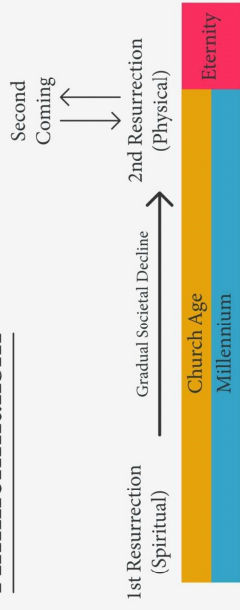

Three Views of the Millennium

Amillennialism - There will be no literal, visible millennium.

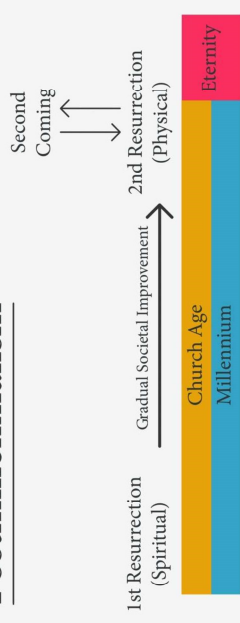

Postmillennialism - Jesus will return at the end of the millennium which will be established by the preaching of the gospel.

Premillennialism - Christ will return and setup His millennial kingdom on Earth and reign over it for 1,000 years.
