11 Since all these things are to be destroyed in this way, what sort of people ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness,

11 Since all these things are to be destroyed in this way, what sort of people ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness,

12 looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be destroyed by burning, and the elements will melt with intense heat!

13 But according to His promise we are looking for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells.

“There is to be an end of the material heavens and earth which we know. It is not that they are to be purified and rehabilitated but that the reverse of creation is to take place. They are to be uncreated. As they came from nothing at the Word of God, they are to be sucked back into nothingness by the same Word of God.”

- Dr. Donald Grey Barnhouse

Why does God destroy the universe?

1. The earth has been under a curse since the fall of man.
2. The earth therefore is a sin-stained planet that is of no use either to man or to God.
3. The planets (2nd heaven) have been polluted by Satan and his demons as this is where they have trafficked and made their home.
4. God began the process of destruction during the Tribulation by sending a continuous barrage of judgments against it. Here He is finishing it.
5. God again shows His omnipotence by completely annihilating the entire universe in one statement, "I let go".

Next time (July 14) we will look at who will appear at the Great White Throne Judgment and why they are there.
