"Why Salvation Matters"

Philemon 1:11-14

October 18, 2020

Philemon 8-10

8 Therefore, though I have enough confidence in Christ to order you to do what is proper,

9 yet for love's sake I rather appeal to you — since I am such a person as Paul, the aged, and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus —

10 I appeal to you for my child Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my imprisonment,

- Like slaves in the 1st century, there are 2 kinds of people in the world today: 1. Those who have been set free by the power of God. 2. Those who are still on the run. Onesimus was on the run until he was set free.
- Onesimus wasn't captured by the Roman authorities, but he was captured by the King of kings.

Paul

1. The knowledge of a runaway slave.
2. The fragileness of Onesimus.
3. His relationship with Philemon.
4. The dynamics of Philemon's house-church.
5. The revolutionary implications to the Roman world.

Philemon

1. His relationship to Paul.
2. His relationship to Onesimus.
3. His relationship to his family.
4. His relationship to his church.
5. His relationship to the community.

If we follow the world –

Options –

1. Don't get involved.
2. Not worth the risk.
3. Get involved and have Onesimus punished to the full extent of Roman law.
4. Result: Uphold the institution of slavery as it exists. Nothing changes.

Onesimus

1. The risk of leaving a “big city” and being caught.
2. His relationship to Paul.
3. His relationship to Philemon.
4. His relationship to his fellow-slaves.
5. It could all blow up.

How does Paul handle it?

Philemon 11-14

11 who formerly was useless to you, but now is useful both to you and to me.

12 I have sent him back to you in person, that is, sending my very heart,

13 whom I wished to keep with me, so that on your behalf he might minister to me in my imprisonment for the gospel;

14 but without your consent I did not want to do anything, so that your goodness would not be, in effect, by compulsion but of your own free will.

11 who formerly was useless to you, but now is useful both to you and to me.

- Onesimus is a changed man.
- Philemon knows him as a runaway and as a thief.
- Salvation in the Lord Jesus Christ changes one internally that results in change externally.
- This is what this entire book hinges on.
- If his conversion is false, everything fails.
- Onesimus does not have to change his name but only live out the meaning of his name – “useful.”
- Notice the dual beneficiaries.
- Those transformed by Christ, like Onesimus, make a significant contribution to the Church and to society. The chief way to change society is to change the heart of individuals.

“Christianity is the power which makes bad men good.”

- James Denny

Philemon 11-14

11 who formerly was useless to you, but now is useful both to you and to me.

12 I have sent him back to you in person, that is, sending my very heart,

13 whom I wished to keep with me, so that on your behalf he might minister to me in my imprisonment for the gospel;

14 but without your consent I did not want to do anything, so that your goodness would not be, in effect, by compulsion but of your own free will.

12 I have sent him back to you in person, that is, sending my very heart,

- Onesimus is coming back to Philemon in the flesh.
- He is going to make the trip because he wants to.
- “But really you are getting me.” -Paul

“heart” – σπλαγχνα – inward parts –spleen, intestine, liver, bowels. The deepest part of you that is really you.

Philemon 11-14

11 who formerly was useless to you, but now is useful both to you and to me.

12 I have sent him back to you in person, that is, sending my very heart,

13 whom I wished to keep with me, so that on your behalf he might minister to me in my imprisonment for the gospel;

14 but without your consent I did not want to do anything, so that your goodness would not be, in effect, by compulsion but of your own free will.

13 whom I wished to keep with me, so that on your behalf he might minister to me in my imprisonment for the gospel;

How valuable is Onesimus?

- “I’d like to keep him for myself.” – Paul “minister” – διακονεω – to serve, to attend to, to minister.

- Prisoners in the Roman Empire depended on outsiders to meet their physical needs.
- New believers have a lot to offer.
- Here is Paul making a disciple.
- Paul never lost sight of his mission – “the gospel.”

Paul is ministering to Philemon through Onesimus.

Philemon is ministering to Paul through Onesimus.

*Talk about being useful!!

Philemon 11-14

11 who formerly was useless to you, but now is useful both to you and to me.

12 I have sent him back to you in person, that is, sending my very heart,

13 whom I wished to keep with me, so that on your behalf he might minister to me in my imprisonment for the gospel;

14 but without your consent I did not want to do anything, so that your goodness would not be, in effect, by compulsion but of your own free will.

14 but without your consent I did not want to do anything, so that your goodness would not be, in effect, by compulsion but of your own free will.

• Onesimus is still a slave of Philemon and not to Paul.

“compulsion” – ἀναγκη - to cause distress, to bend an arm to cause it to ache.

“free will” – εκουσιον – voluntarily, willingly.

• Following the Lord Jesus and doing His will is not by force.

• We don't put pressure on people. No arm twisting.

• We use encouragement, persuasion, love, grace, kindness, patience, to move people to action.

2 Cor 9:7

7 Each one must do just as he has purposed in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

1 Peter 5:2

2 shepherd the flock of God among you, exercising oversight not under compulsion, but voluntarily, according to the will of God; and not for sordid gain, but with eagerness;

“No sacrifices are acceptable to God but those which are freely offered.”

- John Calvin

The only hope of the world is not found in social reform
politics
self-improvement
organizations and movements that protest.

It is only found in the life-changing power of Jesus Christ.
