SOCIAL JUSTICE MOVEMENT

Definition: A movement designed to bring about justice, equality, and inclusion for the oppressed.

“There may be no document in all history that has done more to remedy the evil of slavery than Paul’s letter to Philemon.”

- Wayne Jackson
Christian Courier

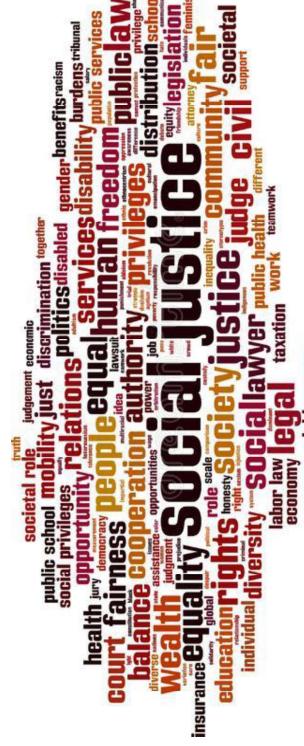

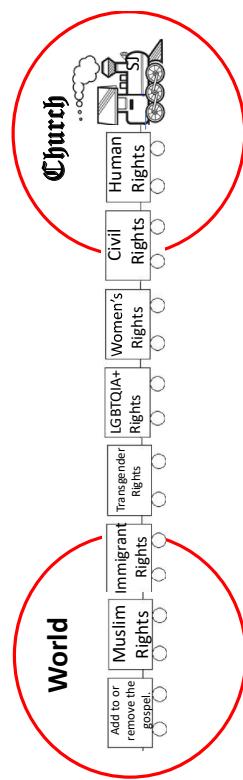

History: In the secular world, it is as old as mankind.

Recently –

The gathering storm started with racism in the 50's and 60's, feminism in the 70's and 80's, LGBTQIA+ in the 90's to the present.

In the Church:

- the 40's and 50's brought us the “social gospel.”
- In the past 50 years, the Church has gradually allowed the Social Justice train to inch its way down the tracks and into the Church.

6 Terms used in SJM:

Woke – to become aware of the social justice that exists in our world and to become active to change it.

Intersectionality – classifications such as gender, race, class, and others cannot be examined in isolation from one another but intersect in the lives of the disadvantaged.

Ex. A minority and a woman.

White Privilege - unearned set of advantages, entitlements, benefits and choices given to people solely because they are White.

Theory of Change – deals with how to change and transform society through legislation, government, protests, etc.

Systemic Racism – racism against minorities that runs through all of society.

Oppression - The use of power to disenfranchise and marginalize groups of people, usually minorities, for the benefit of another in order to dominate the culture and society.

Egalitarianism – all people are equal and deserve equal rights and opportunities.

The problems from a secular world view:

- minority inequality
- women's rights
- LGBTQA+ rights
- access to abortion
- climate change
- equal access to education
- universal healthcare
- income inequality
- sex trafficking
- child welfare
- dignity
- fairness

The problem from a biblical view:

- Sin.
- The curse.
- It will not end. Result - frustration.
- The solution from a biblical view:
- Micah 6:8
- 8 And what does the Lord require of you
But to do justice, to love kindness,
And to walk humbly with your God?
- The solution is in the gospel of salvation found in Jesus Christ.
- 1. No salvation for Onesimus.
- 2. No repentance.
- 3. No changed life.
- 4. No acceptance of Onesimus by Philemon.
- 5. No reconciliation.
- 6. No forgiveness.
- 7. No elevation of Onesimus in status from a slave to a brother.
- 8. No unity.
- 9. No payment of damages.
- 10. No hope for the future.

The solution from a secular view:

Pass laws and legislation to secure equal rights for everyone.

What is the gospel?

- What the gospel is not:
 1. The gospel is NOT fixing social injustices in this world.
 2. The gospel is NOT acknowledging “white privilege” and turning from it.
 3. The gospel is NOT reparations.
 4. The gospel is NOT redeeming the culture.
 5. The gospel is NOT loving others or seeking justice.

*Think about it: Jesus Christ did not die and rise again to solve the social injustices in this world. He died to save sinners.

The gospel is the offer of salvation to mankind who is separated from God by sin and under the wrath and condemnation of God resulting in eternal punishment in Hell.

WHAT DOES THAT MEAN? 10 THINGS-

1. Salvation is not saving the world from the results of sin. Salvation is saving from sin itself – its penalty, its power, and ultimately its presence.
2. Salvation deals with a much deeper issue - the issue of the heart which is the heart of the issue.

Jer 17:9

9 "The heart is more deceitful than all else
And is desperately sick;
Who can understand it?

Matt 15:19

19 "For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, slanders.
3. Salvation changes lives – thoughts, attitudes, motives, decisions, understanding, it moves people to love and compassion for the oppressed, the abused, the marginalized, the disadvantaged.

4. Where ever the gospel is preached and lives are changed, you see individuals, families, societies, cultures, affected by it for the good. Philemon - Onesimus.
 - William Wilberforce took up the cause of social justice for the slaves of the British empire.
 - Amy Carmichael took up the cause of social justice for children who were being prostituted in India.
 - E.C. Bridgeman took up the cause of social justice for Chinese peasants, who were being purposely addicted to opium by English merchants.
 - Nursing, hospitals, orphanages, have been started.
 - The poor have been fed and housed.

Acts 4:32-35

32 And the congregation of those who believed were of one heart and soul; and not one of them claimed that anything belonging to him was his own, but all things were common property to them.
33 And with great power the apostles were giving testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and a abundant grace was upon them all.
34 For there was not a needy person among them, for all who were owners of land or houses would sell them and bring the proceeds of the sales 35 and lay them at the apostles' feet, and they would be distributed to each as any had need.

5. Those things occurred because of the gospel, not a SJM.
 - 6. Without the gospel, social justice is meaningless - just a political talking point to be bantered back and forth.
 - 7. Why should the Church surrender to and join with a secular movement, when the Church has the only solution to the to the sinful behaviors that exists in our world?
8. The ground is level at the foot of the cross. Everyone comes equally to Christ for salvation – men, women, the rich, the poor, the disadvantaged and all ethnic groups (nations, peoples, tribes, and tongues). Red and yellow, black and white – they are precious in His sight. Not “color blind” but “color blessed.” We are to celebrate our diversity that God has given to us. Everyone has something to contribute. (Unlike Corinth over spiritual gifts.)
9. Repentance, forgiveness, reconciliation, equality, and unity are all found in salvation.
10. The world is changed by the gospel one person at a time.

Why would the Church allow this in and corrupt its message?

1. It's lost its identity.
2. It does not understand the message of the gospel nor the power of the gospel.

Gal 1:6-9

6 I am amazed that you are so quickly deserting Him who called you by the grace of Christ, for a different gospel;
7 which is really not another; only there are some who are disturbing you and want to distort the gospel of Christ.
8 But even if we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you a gospel contrary to what we have preached to you, he is to be accursed!
9 As we have said before, so I say again now, if any man is preaching to you a gospel contrary to what you received, he is to be accursed!

"The gospel is the good news of what God has done, especially in Christ Jesus, especially in his cross and resurrection; it is not what we do. Because it is news, it is to be proclaimed. But because it is powerful, it not only reconciles us to God, but transforms us, and that necessarily shapes our behavior, priorities, values, relationships with people, and much more. . . . to preach moral duty without the underlying power of the gospel is moralism that is both pathetic and powerless"
