Luke 22:54-62

54 Having arrested Him, they led Him away and brought Him to the house of the high priest; but Peter was following at a distance.

THE COURTYARD

- 1-3 a.m. Friday morning.

• We have already established that this arrest and subsequent trials are all a scam.

• High Priest is Annas and his son-in-law Caiaphas. They ran the Temple and all of the corrupt financial scams and practices associated with it.

THE COURTYARD

- 1-3 a.m. Friday morning.
- We have already established that this arrest and subsequent trials are all a scam.

• High Priest is Annas and his son-in-law Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.

• Peter kept his distance.

John 18:12-13

12 So the Roman cohort and the commander and the officers of the Jews, arrested Jesus and bound Him,

13 and led Him to Annas first; for he was father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.

Peter wanted to be with Jesus but was watched as a rebel to the state.

54 Having arrested Him, they led Him away and brought Him to the house of the high priest; but Peter was following at a distance.

Luke 22:31-34

31 "Simon, behold, Satan has demanded permission to sift you like wheat;

32 but I have prayed for you, that your faith may not fail; and you, when once you have turned again, strengthen your brothers."

33 But he said to Him, "Lord, with You I am ready to go both to prison and to death!"

34 And He said, "I say to you, Peter, the rooster will not crow today until you have denied three times that you know Me."

Luke 22:54-62

54 Having arrested Him, they led Him away and brought Him to the house of the high priest; but Peter was following at a distance.

55 After they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and had sat down together, Peter was sitting among them.

56 And a servant-girl, seeing him as he sat in the firelight and looking intently at him, said, "This man was with Him too."

57 But he denied it, saying, "Woman, I do not know Him."

58 A little later, another saw him and said, "You are one of them too!" But Peter said, "Man, I am not!"

59 After about an hour had passed, another man began to insist, saying, "Certainly this man also was with Him, for he is a Galilean too."

60 But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are talking about."

Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

61 The Lord turned and looked at Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had told him, "Before a rooster crows today, you will deny Me three times."

62 And he went out and wept bitterly.

55 After they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and had sat down together, Peter was sitting among them.

How did Peter get into the courtyard?

John 18:15-16

15 Simon Peter was following Jesus, and so was another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered with Jesus into the court of the high priest, 16 but Peter was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper, and brought Peter in.

• This is not Peter "hanging out with the world" as some suggest.

• Peter and John are the only disciples to be found.

• Here is the difference between Judas and Peter. Peter is persevering with his faith. That is how a for-real disciple is identified.

Luke 22:54-62

54 Having arrested Him, they led Him away and brought Him to the house of the high priest; but Peter was following at a distance.

55 After they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and had sat down together, Peter was sitting among them.

56 And a servant-girl, seeing him as he sat in the firelight and looking intently at him, said, "This man was with Him too."

59 After about an hour had passed, another man began to insist, saying, "Certainly this man also was with Him, for he is a Galilean too."

Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

61 The Lord turned and looked at Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had told him, "Before a rooster crows today, you will deny Me three times."

62 And he went out and wept bitterly.

56 And a servant-girl, seeing him as he sat in the firelight and looking intently at him, said, "This man was with Him too."

57 But he denied it, saying, "Woman, I do not know Him."

DENIAL #1

• No doubt there was discussion around the fire.

• This girl recognizes Peter. Stares at him. Do you think Peter sensed he was being stared at?

• Peter flat-out denies it. No "ifs, ands, or buts." No hesitation.

• The temptation was too great. Peter had failed to pray in the garden.

• Now fear sets in.

Luke 22:54-62

54 Having arrested Him, they led Him away and brought Him to the house of the high priest; but Peter was following at a distance.

60 But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are talking about." Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

DENIAL #3

• "hour" – Peter has had time to think. Would he change direction and start affirming his relationship with Jesus?

• This man is identifying Peter, not by his appearance, but by his accent.

• Peter explodes at this point. The pressure has reached its limit. He would not change direction.

59 After about an hour had passed, another man began to insist, saying, "Certainly this man also was with Him, for he is a Galilean too."

60 But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are talking about." Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

Matt 26:74

74 Then he began to curse and swear, "I do not know the man!" And immediately a rooster crowed.

• Peter lost it at this point. But the evidence is all there.

• Peter fulfilled Jesus' prophecy at this point.

• Even while Peter is still speaking, the rooster crows.

• The Word of the Lord is always true. It knows and reads us perfectly.

Heb 4:12

12 For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

59 After about an hour had passed, another man began to insist, saying, "Certainly this man also was with Him, for he is a Galilean too."

60 But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are talking about." Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

DENIAL #2

• Here is another who recognizes Peter as a follower.

"man" – αὐθεντωρ – used here to emphatically deny any association.

• I can imagine Peter is feeling the heat. Things a starting to close in on him.

DENIAL #1

• No hesitation here.

THE LOOK

- Oh my! 1 final gaze at Peter, but this time it is not from an accuser but from the Lord Jesus Himself.
- εὐβλέπω – to fix your gaze on something, look on intently.
Note: The timing of the Lord turning His head. It's the “turning of the head and the gaze” that is so powerful.
- What was in this “look”?
  1. Conviction.
  2. Compassion.
  3. Confirmation.

Luke 22:54-62

54 Having arrested Him, they led Him away and brought Him to the house of the high priest; but Peter was following at a distance.
55 After they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and had sat down together, Peter was sitting among them.

56 And a servant-girl, seeing him as he sat in the firelight and looking intently at him, said, "This man was with Him too."

57 But he denied it, saying, "Woman, I do not know Him."

58 A little later, another saw him and said, "You are one of them too!"
But Peter said, "Man, I am not!"

59 After about an hour had passed, another man began to insist, saying, "Certainly this man also was with Him, for he is a Galilean too."

60 But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are talking about." Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.

61 The Lord turned and looked at Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had told him, "Before a rooster crows today, you will deny Me three times."

62 And he went out and wept bitterly.

62 And he went out and wept bitterly.

- Peter was overcome with conviction and emotion.
  - He had to get away by himself.
- “bitterly” – πικρώς - used of pungent food, bitter, reaction may be violent.
- When pride falls, it is very painful.

Application

1. How strong are your convictions?

2. Do not doubt the truthfulness of God's Word.
3. Do not underestimate the power of prayer over future temptation.

4. Every time we fail in our walk with the Lord, 2 things happen:
  1. God reminds us of the weakness of our flesh.
  2. God reminds us of His grace that restores us.
