Hab 3:1-7

1 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, according to Shigionoth.

2 Lord, I have heard the report about You and I fear. O Lord, revive Your work in the midst of the years, In the midst of the years make it known; In wrath remember mercy.

3 God comes from Teman, And the Holy One from Mount Paran. Selah. His splendor covers the heavens, And the earth is full of His praise.

4 His radiance is like the sunlight; He has rays flashing from His hand, And there is the hiding of His power.

5 Before Him goes pestilence, And plague comes after Him.

6 He stood and surveyed the earth; He looked and startled the nations. Yes, the perpetual mountains were shattered, The ancient hills collapsed. His ways are everlasting.

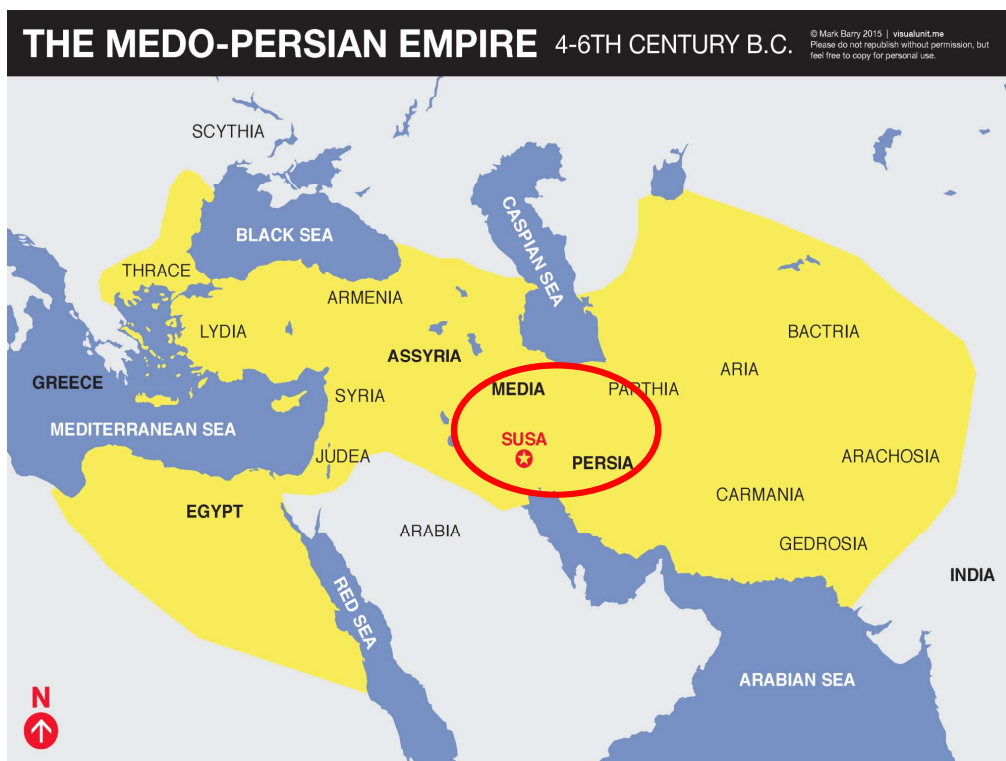

7 I saw the tents of Cushan under distress,

The tent curtains of the land of Midian were trembling.

2 Lord, I have heard the report about You and I fear. O Lord, revive Your work in the midst of the years, In the midst of the years make it known; In wrath remember mercy.

- Habakkuk – “ Ok Lord, I hear what you are saying.”
- Habakkuk has a fear of God.

Ps 36:1

1 Transgression speaks to the ungodly within his heart;

There is no fear of God before his eyes.

Phil 2:12

12 Work out your salvation with fear and trembling;

- Habakkuk is afraid. Why? This is going to be a bloodbath.
- But Habakkuk doesn't argue or fight with God. He knows God is right in what He is doing.
- “revive your work” - Habakkuk asks God that during the years of this invasion and the punishment of Judah, He would send revival. Based on Gen. 12 – Ab. Cov.

“revive” - חַיָּה chayah (khaw-yaw') - to live, to have life, to quicken, to give life, to restore life.

“In revival God is not concerned about filling empty churches, He is concerned about filling empty hearts.”

- Leonard Ravenhill

“What’s your main worry in this world? . . . Are you hung up on all of the world events? Is politics the thing that worries you most? Are those the things that are the most troublesome to you? What is your main consciousness? Where is the area of your worry? What is it that you fear most of all? If you’re thinking like Habakkuk thought, you couldn’t care less about world events. . . Your primary concern and mine ought to be for the glory of the almighty God, for the health and the condition of His church, for the future of His cause among men, and for my own relationship to Him. That should be infinitely more magnified than anything I care about in this world. “

- John MacArthur

2 Lord, I have heard the report about You and I fear. O Lord, revive Your work in the midst of the years, In the midst of the years make it known; In wrath remember mercy.

- Habakkuk knows and accepts the fact that God is going to exercise His wrath but he also knows that God is a merciful God.
- God is angry with our sin – we deserve his wrath. We do not deserve His mercy.

Rom 9:22-23

22 What if God, although willing to demonstrate His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath prepared for destruction?

23 And He did so to make known the riches of His glory upon vessels of mercy, which He prepared beforehand for glory,

- Revival will come, not because we deserve it, but because His mercy is great.
- Everything we have as believers is because of the grace and mercy of God.

Rom 11:22

22 Behold then the kindness and severity of God;

3 And He who was sitting was like a jasper stone and a sardius in appearance; and there was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald in appearance.

4 Around the throne were twenty-four thrones; and upon the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white garments, and golden crowns on their heads.

13 and in the middle of the lampstands I saw one like a son of man, clothed in a robe reaching to the feet, and girded across His chest with a golden sash.

Application

1. Are you a person who, because of God's sovereignty, is calm in time of trouble or crises?
2. Do you have Rom. 8:28 moments when you realize its ok, everything is going to work out?
3. We have the entire OT, NT, Church history, and our own experience to inform us fully that God does indeed deal in wrath and at the same time He will act in mercy.
4. Revival will come to the Church when we "bring the book."

Neh 8:1

1 And all the people gathered as one man at the square which was in front of the Water Gate, and they asked Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses which the Lord had given to Israel.

7 I saw the tents of Cushan under distress,

The tent curtains of the land of Midian were trembling.

6. Cushan and Median

Two nations that opposed God, stood in fear and trembling.

They shook with violent emotion.

Here are 2 nations that became evil and corrupt.

God dealt with them both in His wrath.
